A GUIDE FOR MSIS LECTURERS

Introduction

Thank you for the joining or rejoining the School of Information Sciences as a part-time lecturer! We value your contribution as an instructor to our program as you provide your knowledge and expertise of the information field to our students.

This Lecturer Handbook provides useful information to assist you before, during, and after the semester. If you have further questions, please consult with the SIS Director, the Director of Graduate Studies, or the Assistant Director of Academic Programs.

Course Syllabus

The School provides a template for all Information Sciences course syllabi. Elements of syllabus template consist of required items (must be included), recommended items (advisable but not required), and suggested items. When questions arise, encourage your students to look at the syllabus first! For more details, see Appendix A for the template and Appendix B for the syllabus guide.

Required Readings

Please have students access articles through subscriptions whenever possible. Posting PDFs on Canvas is not recommended when a reading is available elsewhere. The UTK Libraries provides resources for subscriptions to articles, conference papers, and book chapters. If you have questions, contact our library liaison, Callantha Tillotson.

The MSIS Student Learning Collection (SLC)

The SLC is part of the exit requirement for all MSIS students and is a mechanism for SIS to gather evidence that students have achieved the nine (9) MSIS Program Outcomes by their final semester of study.

How Does the SLC Work?

Students must review completed coursework and identify at least 3 assignments that demonstrate their mastery of at least 5 of the 9 MSIS Program Outcomes. Every SIS course must include at least one assignment that is connected to at least one MSIS Outcome. Assignments and Outcomes must be identified in MSIS course syllabi. (See an example in Appendix C.)

Prior to the beginning of classes, your course syllabus should be submitted to the School via the Course Syllabus Upload Form (the link will also be provided to you prior to the semester). In the form, you will identify assignments from your course that are matched to at least one of the program outcomes. The form has space for 5 assignments, but you can add more if necessary. An individual assignment can be mapped to multiple outcomes but no more than 3 are recommended. Include the mapping information in your syllabus.

Canvas and Zoom

Canvas is the asynchronous learning management system used for all courses. Zoom is the cloud-based conference tool used for online courses.

All course sections are assigned a Canvas site. For instructors teaching a combined class of two sections, the sites can be merged into one prior to publishing the class.

The Office of Innovative Technology provides “Get Started” guides for Canvas and Zoom.

Canvas: <https://oit.utk.edu/teachingtools/online/>

Zoom: <https://oit.utk.edu/teachingtools/liveonline/zoom-getting-started/>

Instructions for Merging Two Sections in Canvas:

<https://utk.teamdynamix.com/TDClient/2277/OIT-Portal/KB/ArticleDet?ID=118409>

Useful Features in Canvas

To enhance your course, Canvas offers features such as the following:

- “Inbox” for emailing the students individually or as a group
- Announcements which can be scheduled for posting throughout the semester
- Assignment Submission and Speedgrader
- Discussion Boards
- “Student View” (where you can see your course from a student’s perspective)

Tips and Tricks for Zoom

For online, synchronous courses, classes are held in Zoom. When setting up your classes, be sure to have the most up-to-date version on your computer to access all the features. Check your storage space (cloud or machine) to make sure you have enough to hold recordings of each session during the semester. In class, share only your PowerPoint (or other presentation software) window. Video is helpful, but for recordings, it can increase the size of the mp4 files significantly.

Connecting Zoom to Canvas

Set up your class sessions and recordings by connecting Zoom to your Canvas site. First, make sure that the @tennessee.edu form of your UTK email address is the primary email in Canvas. (This only has to be done once at <https://utk.instructure.com/courses/55015/pages/zoom-instructions.>)

From your home page in Canvas, select Settings in the menu. Select the Navigation tab near the top of the screen and scroll down to the 2nd block to find “Zoom”. Drag and drop “Zoom” into the first block on the top of the screen to make it visible. Be sure to SAVE at the bottom of the screen!

Once Zoom is visible in your menu, select it to set up a recurring class meeting. Select the Schedule a Meeting button near the top and add the class schedule information.

Add the Zoom link to the Announcements section of the Canvas to provide easy access for your students. If you set Zoom to automatically record the class, a link to each session will automatically appear on the Zoom page.

Zoom Security and Helpful Settings

While Zoom is a great class tool, it is subject to unauthorized intrusion and disruption if left open. The following helpful options in your Zoom Settings can be used to avoid these incidents.

- Join Before Host – turn this off to prevent anyone from accessing the class before you have logged in
- Authentication – only allows UTK-affiliated persons to join the meeting
- Require a Password – use a password provided to students enrolled in the course
- Mute on Entry

For additional helpful links for Canvas, Zoom, and class recordings, see the Resources page.

Organizing Your Class

Graduate classes are typically one meeting per week (2 hours, 40 minutes). Fall and spring semesters are 15 weeks, while summer terms are 8 weeks. Here are class recommendations that may be helpful.

In Class

Begin your presentation slides with an “agenda” slide to set up the class for the session. Include any housekeeping (questions and announcements). Plan at least one break after the first hour of class. Pause the recording and/or use the “away” icon in Zoom.

Assignments, Grading, and Grades

Assignments in required courses should be standard, but assignments for elective courses will vary based on course content and goals. Try to grade/return an assignment within two weeks. Have a graded assignment planned within the first 6 weeks of class so students have an idea for where they are in the course.

Handling Student Issues and Concerns

On occasions, issues arise during the semester regarding student performance in the course. This can include problems such as excessive absences, late/missing assignments, disagreement with grading, and plagiarism.

Regular Attendance

Have an attendance policy (and any penalties) clearly stated in your syllabus. While roll calls in classes are not required, you can use various ways to keep up with students in the class, including calling on names from the roster and using the polling function in Zoom. If a student has not attended class or multiple classes per the course policy, try contacting them directly.

Grades

When providing feedback on assignments, substantive comments can help students better understand scoring and improve on future assignments. However, there are times when students want to discuss or contest an issued grade. Recommend that students wait at least 24 hours before contacting about a grade and to make an appointment to speak with you instead of discussing via email. (For additional information on grade appeals, see the UTK catalog.)

Incompletes

A grade of Incomplete can be assigned to a student under extraordinary circumstances that affect a student’s performance in the course. It is the responsibility of the student to request a grade of Incomplete prior to the last day of classes. Students must complete the request form available from the School, and provide a rationale. (It is recommended that the student communicate directly with the instructor prior to the request.) After review of the request, if approved, notify the School of the arrangement and the deadline for completion of the remaining coursework. A grade of “I” can then be added in the grading system when it opens.

Resources

Information regarding grade appeals and plagiarism can be found in the Resources section of this handbook. In any of the above cases, try to communicate with the student directly. If the issue remains unresolved even after communication or if there is no response at all, please reach out to the Director of Graduate Studies or the Assistant Director of Academic Programs for assistance.

Administering Your Class

As an instructor, you will have a MyUTK account where you can see your class roster(s), complete the required attendance tracking, and enter your final course grades.

Attendance Tracking

The university requires that all instructors verify that students who are receiving any form of financial aid are attending class. The attendance tracking system opens on the first day of classes. While you are not required to take daily attendance, instructors must verify that students have attended at least once. For more information and instructions, please see the Registrar's website at <https://registrar.utk.edu/banner-general-information-for-faculty/banner-attendance-tracking-instruction-guide/>.

Class Roster

Your class roster is available in both Canvas and MyUTK. The list in MyUTK is more accurate as it is updated automatically when there any changes (e.g., if a student drops your class). Class rosters are listed by section in MyUTK.

Final Grade Entry

Final grades are entered via MyUTK. Near the end of the semester, the Registrar's Office sends a reminder when the grading period opens. (You can also find the dates and deadlines in the Key Dates calendar at <https://registrar.utk.edu/calendar/>.)

In your MyUTK account, your grade entry screen may look like the one below. This is also used to enter a grade after the semester has ended when changing a grade from Incomplete to a letter grade.

Course Evaluations

The university system TNVoice is the course evaluation system for students to provide feedback near the end of the semester. You will receive an email notification when the system has opened, and instructors should encourage their students to complete the course evaluation at that time.

Evaluation Questions

- Please rate the following questions based on your experiences in this course. The rating categories are 5=Strongly Agree, 4=Agree, 3=Neutral, 2=Disagree, and 1=Strongly Disagree. If the question does not apply to this course then choose 0=Not Applicable.
  - The instructor contributed to your understanding of course content.
  - The instructor created an atmosphere that invited you to seek additional help.
  - The instructor responded to your inquiries about the course (e.g., emails, texts, phone calls) within a reasonable timeframe (i.e., 48-72 hours).
  - The instructor created a respectful and positive learning environment.
  - The instructor provided useful feedback on course assignments.
  - The course challenged you to learn something new.
  - The class sessions were well organized.
  - The course materials (readings, homework, laboratories, etc.) enhanced your learning in this course.
- Is there any additional feedback you would like to provide about the instructor (e.g., teaching style, time management, accessibility)?
- Is there any additional feedback you would like to provide about the course (e.g., workload, content, technology)?
- Is there any feedback you would like to provide about the instructor's transition of this specific course to remote/online learning?

When a decision to close is made, information is distributed to the campus community, shared with local media, and posted on the front page at <http://utk.edu>. SIS will cancel classes when UT is closed. Please check the SIS student listserv (UTKSIS-L@LISTSERV.UTK.EDU) for messages about closing.

ADDITIONAL POLICIES AND POINTS OF INFORMATION

Students with Disabilities

The University of Tennessee, Knoxville, is committed to providing an inclusive learning environment for all students. If you anticipate or experience a barrier in this course due to a chronic health condition, a learning, hearing, neurological, mental health, vision, physical, or other kind of disability, or a temporary injury, you are encouraged to contact Student Disability Services (SDS) at 865-974-6087 or sds@utk.edu. An SDS Coordinator will meet with you to develop a plan to ensure you have equitable access to this course. If you are already registered with SDS, please contact your instructor to discuss implementing accommodations included in your course access letter.

Accessibility Policy and Training

The University of Tennessee, Knoxville, provides reasonable accommodations for individual students with disabilities through its office of Student Disability Services. The university is also committed to making information and materials accessible, when possible. Resources and assistance to support these efforts can be found at <http://accessibility.utk.edu/>.

Civility

Civility is genuine respect and regard for others: politeness, consideration, tact, good manners, graciousness, cordiality, affability, amiability and courteousness. Civility enhances academic freedom and integrity, and is a prerequisite to the free exchange of ideas and knowledge in the learning community. Our community consists of students, faculty, staff, alumni, and campus visitors. Community members affect each other’s well-being and have a shared interest in creating and sustaining an environment where all community members and their points of view are valued and respected. Affirming the value of each member of the university community, the campus asks that all its members adhere to the principles of civility and community adopted by the campus: <http://civility.utk.edu/>.

CCI Diversity Statement

The College of Communication and Information recognizes that a college diverse in its people, curricula, scholarship, research, and creative activities expands opportunities for intellectual inquiry and engagement, helps students develop critical thinking skills, and prepares students for social and civic responsibilities. All members of the College benefit from diversity and the quality of learning, research, scholarship and creative activities is enhanced by a climate of inclusion, understanding and appreciation of differences and the full range of human experience. As a result, the College is committed to diversity and equal opportunity and it recognizes that it must represent the diversity inherent in American society. The College is acutely aware that diversity and fairness are foundations that unite the College's faculty, staff, students, and the larger communication and information community.

Instructor Status as a Title IX Mandatory Reporter

University of Tennessee faculty are committed to supporting our students and upholding gender equity laws as outlined by Title IX. Please be aware that if you choose to confide in a faculty member regarding an issue of sexual misconduct, dating violence, or stalking, we are obligated to inform the University's Title IX Coordinator, who can assist you in connecting with all possible resources both on- and off-campus. If you would like to speak with someone confidentially, the Student Counseling Center (865-974-2196) and the Student Health Center (865-974-3135) are both confidential resources.

For additional resources and information, visit titleix.utk.edu.

Wellness

The Center for Health Education and Wellness empowers all Volunteers to thrive by cultivating personal and community well-being. The Center can answer questions about general wellness, substance use, sexual health, healthy relationships, and sexual assault prevention. The Student Counseling Center is the university's primary facility for personal counseling, psychotherapy, and psychological outreach and consultation services.

Any student who has difficulty affording hygiene products, groceries, or accessing sufficient food to eat every day is urged to contact the Big Orange Pantry for support. The Big Orange Pantry, located in Greve Hall, is a free resource for all students, faculty, and staff, no matter how great or small their need is. Students who need emergency financial assistance can also request funding from the Student Emergency Fund.

Students who are experiencing non-academic difficulty or distress and need assistance should call 974-HELP or submit an online referral. The 974-HELP team specializes in aligning resources and support to students experiencing mental health distress.

Emergency Alert System

The University of Tennessee, Knoxville, is committed to providing a safe environment for learning and working. When you are alerted to an emergency, please take appropriate action. Learn more about what to do in an emergency and sign up for UT Alerts. Check the emergency posters near exits and elevators for building specific information. In the event of an emergency, course schedules and assignments may be subject to change. If changes to graded activities are required, reasonable adjustments will be made, and you will be responsible for meeting revised deadlines.

COVID-19 Guidelines (updated August 8, 2022)

CDC guidance recognizes the changing dynamics of living in a world with COVID-19. It rates COVID-19 community levels as low, medium, and high, with recommendations at each level about the use of masks and other precautions. At all levels of community spread, staying up-to-date with vaccination is the best way to protect yourself from serious illness and to limit the spread of COVID-19. Wearing a mask is always an option for any individual who chooses to do so, and the CDC recommends that those with high risk of severe illness talk with their health care providers. If you are sick, please stay in, avoid being around others as much as possible, and contact your health care provider for any symptoms that are worsening, moderate to severe, or concerning to you. For more information about vaccination or to self-report an illness and receive support, visit <http://studenthealth.utk.edu/CommunityHealth>. For more information about COVID-19, visit <http://studenthealth.utk.edu/covid-19>.

ASSIGNMENTS, ASSESSMENTS, AND EVALUATIONS

Academic Integrity

Each student is responsible for their personal integrity in academic life and for adhering to UT's Honor Statement. The Honor Statement reads: "An essential feature of the University of Tennessee, Knoxville is a commitment to maintaining an atmosphere of intellectual integrity and academic honesty. As a student of the university, I pledge that I will neither knowingly give nor receive any inappropriate assistance in academic work, thus affirming my own personal commitment to honor and integrity."

Plagiarism

Statement about plagiarism and penalties, e.g.,

Plagiarism in any of its several forms is intolerable, and attention to matters of documentation in all written work is expected and required. Inadvertence, alleged lack of understanding, or avowed ignorance of the various types of plagiarism are not acceptable excuses.

Specific examples of plagiarism are:

1. Copying without proper documentation (quotation marks and a citation) written or spoken words, phrases, or sentences from any source;
2. Summarizing without proper documentation (usually a citation) ideas from another source (unless such information is recognized as common knowledge);
3. Borrowing facts, statistics, graphs, pictorial representations, or phrases without acknowledging the source (unless such information is recognized as common knowledge);
4. Collaborating on a graded assignment without the instructor's approval;
5. Submitting work, either in whole or in part, created by a professional service and used without attribution (e.g., paper, speech, bibliography, or photograph).

Students who may be unsure of the nature of plagiarism should consult the instructor or a guide for writing research reports. (Additional resources are available at <http://www.lib.utk.edu/instruction/plagiarism>.)

Infractions of academic integrity are penalized according to the severity of the infraction but may include a course grade of "F."

Assignments and Grading

x

Preparation of Written Work

x

Due Dates and Late Assignments

Incompletes

Based on adopted University of Tennessee-Knoxville and SIS policy, a grade of I (Incomplete) is reserved for emergencies that prevent the student from completing the course on time.

Incompletes are granted only under "the most unusual of circumstances" and solely at the discretion of the instructor. Plan your semester's course of study carefully to insure sufficient time to complete the required work.

For students who simply "disappear" without contacting the instructor and without completing the required form, an "F" is submitted.

Assigning Grades

Evaluation

Semester grades will be assigned according to the following scale:

A	93≤	(4 quality points per semester hour) superior performance.
A-	90- 92.99	(3.7 quality points per semester credit hour) intermediate grade performance.
B+	88- 89.99	(3.5 quality points per semester hour) better than satisfactory performance.
B	83- 87.99	(3 quality points per semester hour) satisfactory performance.
B-	80- 82.99	(2.7 quality points per semester credit hour) intermediate grade performance.
C+	78- 79.99	(2.5 quality points per semester hour) less than satisfactory performance.
C	70- 77.99	(2 quality points per semester hour) performance well below the standard expected of graduate students.
D	60- 69.99	(1 quality point per semester hour) clearly unsatisfactory performance and cannot be used to satisfy degree requirements.

F	59.99≥	(no quality points) extremely unsatisfactory performance and cannot be used to satisfy degree requirements.
I		(no quality points) a temporary grade indicating that the student has performed satisfactorily in the course but, due to unforeseen circumstances, has been unable to finish all requirements. An I is not given to enable a student to do additional work to raise a deficient grade. The instructor, in consultation with the student, decides the terms for the removal of the I, including the time limit for removal. If the I is not removed within one calendar year, the grade will be changed to an F. The course will not be counted in the cumulative grade point average until a final grade is assigned. No student may graduate with an I on the record.
S/NC		(carries credit hours, but no quality points) S is equivalent to a grade of B or better, and NC means no credit earned. A grade of Satisfactory/No Credit is allowed only where indicated in the course description in the Graduate Catalog . The number of Satisfactory/No Credit courses in a student's program is limited to one-fourth of the total credit hours required.
P/NP		(carries credit hours, but no quality points) P indicates progress toward completion of a thesis or dissertation. NP indicates no progress or inadequate progress.
W		(carries no credit hours or quality points) indicates that the student officially withdrew from the course.

Your Role in Improving the Course Through Assessment

At UT, it is our collective responsibility to improve the state of teaching and learning. During the semester you may be requested to assess aspects of this course, either during class or at the completion of the class, and through the TNVoice course evaluation. Please take the few moments needed to respond to these requests as they are used by instructors, department heads, deans and others to improve the quality of your UT learning experience.

MSIS Program Outcomes

It is our vision to provide a quality educational program, and for students to have the very best educational experience possible. By the end of their time in the MSIS program, each student should be able to:

1. Describe and discuss the processes of creation, organization, distribution, storage, access, retrieval, management, use, and preservation of information.
2. Describe and discuss the nature of leadership and management in the information professions and the importance of participation in the global information society.
3. Apply the general principles, values, and ethical standards of providing information services in a variety of settings and for diverse populations.
4. Comply with the changing responsibilities of the information professional in a culturally diverse and networked global society.
5. Identify critical professional issues in a variety of organizational, cultural, societal, disciplinary, transdisciplinary, and historical contexts.
6. Analyze and apply standards or policies related to the processes of creation, organization, distribution, storage, access, retrieval, management, use or preservation of information.
7. Explain the changing nature of information, information needs, and information behavior.
8. Assess and implement information technologies, systems, sources, and services that serve users effectively and efficiently.
9. Analyze research and apply it to information practice.

Though this is not strictly a history class, we will refer to the historical development of higher education and academic libraries to provide a context for our discussion of the 21st Century academic library's theory and practice. There are no facts to memorize and no skills to demonstrate, and you will not learn how to manage any specific function of academic librarianship. The purpose of the course is to help you establish an informed perspective and theoretical framework in preparation for any assignment in an academic library.
